of India

Order thereon 11th February 1860, No. 51.

"Referring to the result of an account of subscription to the five and a half per cent loan published in the Calcutta Gazette Extraordinary of this date, and to the desire of the Government not to exceed the stipulated limit of five crores of Rupees, the Honorable the President in Council has decided to close the five and a half per cent loan immediately at all district treasuries and to limit the subscriptions at Madras and Bombay respectively to a total of 80 or twice 40 lacs of Rupees in cash leaving the balance to be subscribed at Calcutta. These propositions have been decided upon according to the rules at which the loan has been taken up at the 3 per centage towards up to this date as far as has been ascertained. You will please to publish the above in your official Gazette, and to report to this Department by telegraph as soon as the amount allotted to your presidency has been subscribed."
