Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 19th December 1860.

No. 48. Read the following letter from Mr. J. LARDIN REBOLD, to His Excellency the Governor of Madras, dated 27 Gresse Street, Rathbone Place, Oxford Street, London, 9th October 1860.

I beg leave most respectfully to inform you that in the year 1840, Mr. Binny brought from India £4,400 for the widow of Francois Ignace Rebold, now my wife—which sum she inherited from Captain John Wolfcand Moss, who died in Madras in the year 1790.

This amount was deposited by Mr. Binny in 1840, in the hands of Messrs. Dalboy, Oliver-son and Co., Solicitors, 8 Frederick Street, Cheapside, who kept it in their possession nineteen months. They then lodged in the Bank of England £3,700 in the name of Lardin Binny, consequently they have retained in their possession £700 since the month of May 1840.

As I am unable to obtain any information either from Mr. Binny or from his Solicitors, Messrs. Dalboy, Oliverson and Co., respecting the £700 kept back, I have taken the liberty of making your Excellency acquainted with the circumstance, and I most earnestly beg that you will cause inquiry to be instituted as to the actual sum of money that Mr. Binny received for the widow of Francois Ignace Rebold.

I hope your Excellency will excuse my troubling you with this communication, and will be graciously pleased to assist me in obtaining a just and satisfactory statement of the manner in which this £4,400 was invested by Mr. Binny.

No. 49. To Mr. J. LARDIN REBOLD, No. 27, Gresse Street, Rathbone place, Oxford Street, London, dated Fort Saint George, 19th December 1860, No. 619.

I am directed by the Honorable the Governor in Council to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 9th October last, requesting that an enquiry may be instituted as to the actual sum of money received by Mr. Binny for the widow of Francois Ignace Rebold; and to inform you in reply that the Government cannot interfere further than they have done, and that you must apply to Messrs. Binny and Co. or appoint some Agent to communicate with them on your behalf.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
