Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, for the month of February 1860.

No. 10. Read the following letter from G. S. FORBES, Esq., Collector of Ganjam; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 30th January 1860, No. 30.

In the Order, dated 30th April 1859, Government directed, among other arrangements recommended by Mr. Breeks, that the pay of one writer in the Account department of this Kutcherry should be absorbed. A writer in the department named Narasaya Naydu expressed his willingness to retire on a pension. This man's papers have now arrived. But as the Government in an Order dated 9th July last, deemed it unnecessary to carry out Mr. Breeks' suggestions till Mr. Pelly's scheme was sanctioned, and as that proposition is still under consideration, Narasaya Naydu cannot be permitted to avail himself of the pension till Mr. Pelly's plan is put into operation. If this man leaves and no other arrangement be made to supply his place, the efficiency of the department already so far below what it should be, will be still further impaired.

No. 11. ORDER THEREON, 14th February 1860, No. 62.

Under the circumstances stated, the Government are of opinion that no change should be permitted for the present.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Order thereon 14 February 1860 No 62.
