GENERAL ORDERS BY THE HON'BLE THE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Fort William, the 7th February 1860.

No. 137 of 1860.—The following Act of Parliament, 22 and 23 Victoria, Cap. 41, regarding the Execution of Leases and Contracts in India, is published in General Orders:—

ANNO VICESIMO SECUNDO AND VICESIMO TERTIO.

VICTORIA REGINÆ.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to Amend the Act for the better Government of India. (13th August 1859.)

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled an Act for the better Government of India; And whereas it has been considered that, under the Enactment in the Fortieth Section of the said Act, the local Governments in India, and Officers intrusted with the Charge of Provinces or Districts there respectively cannot enter into and execute such Contracts and assurances in India on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, as before the commencement of the said Act they were respectively competent to enter into and execute on behalf of the East India Company, and it is expedient to give them such Powers: And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the proper Mode of the Execution of Contracts entered into by the Secretary of State in Council, pursuant to the Provision of the said Fortieth Section of the said Act, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: And whereas it is expedient to alter so much of the Enactment, in the Forty-third Section of the said Act as relates to the Mode of signing and countersigning the Drafts or Orders therein mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; that is to say,

I. The Governor General of India in Council, the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, the Governor in Council of Bombay, the Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces now under the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, respectively, or any Officer for the Time being intrusted with the Government, Charge, or Care of any Presidency, Province, or District in India, subject to such Provisions or Restrictions as the Secretary of State in Council, with the Concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting, shall from Time to Time prescribe, are hereby respectively empowered to sell and dispose of all Real and Personal Estate whatsoever in India for the Time being vested in Her Majesty under the said Act, within the Limits of their respective Governments, Provinces, or Districts, or to raise Money on any such Real Estate by way of Mortgage, and to make proper Assurances for that Purpose, and to purchase and acquire any Land or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein, Stores, Goods, Chattels, and other Property in India, within the said respective Limits, and to enter into any Contracts whatsoever, within the said respective Limits, for the Purposes of the said Act, and all Property so acquired shall vest in Her Majesty for the Service of the Government of India.

II. The Secretary of State in Council may be named as a Party to any such Deed, Contract, or other Instrument, and it shall be sufficient to use the Designation of Secretary of State in Council in such Deed, Contract, or other Instrument, and the same may be expressed to be executed on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, by or by Order of the Governor General in Council, Governor in Council, Lieutenant Governor of the North-western Provinces, or other Officer intrusted as aforesaid, but may be executed in other respects in like Manner as other Instruments executed by or on behalf of him or them respectively in his or their official Capacity, and may be enforced by or against the Secretary of State in Council for the Time being; and neither the Secretary of State, nor any Member of the Council, nor any Person executing such Deed, Contract, or other Instrument, shall be personally liable in respect thereof; and all Liabilities, Costs, and Damages in respect thereof shall be satisfied and paid out of the Revenues of India.

III. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to pay out all or any of the Moneys paid to the Credit of the Account opened under the said Act by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, intituled "The Account of the Secretary of State in Council of India," upon any Drafts or Orders signed by the Accountant General on the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council, or by either of the Two Senior Clerks in the Department of the said Accountant General, and countersigned in such Manner as the Secretary of State for India in Council shall from Time to Time order or establish; and any Draft or Order signed and countersigned as aforesaid, or in manner directed by the said Act, shall effectually discharge the Bank of England for all Moneys paid upon the same.

IV. If before the passing of this Act, any Contracts or Assurances shall have been entered into or made on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, or the Government of India, by any Person in India who, previously to the Commencement of the said Act, would have been authorized to enter into and make the same on behalf of the East India Company, such Contracts or Assurances shall have the same Validity in favour of and against the Secretary of State in Council as they would have had in favour of and against the said Company if made on behalf of the said Company, and if the said Act had not been passed; but neither the Secretary of State nor any Member of the Council shall be personally liable in respect of any such Contract or Assurances; and all Liabilities, Costs, and Damages in respect thereof shall be satisfied and paid out of the Revenues of India.

V. All Contracts purporting to be entered into by the Secretary of State in Council which shall have been previous to the passing of this Act made under the Hands and Seals or Hands of Three or more Members of Council shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as the same would have been if Section Forty of the said Act had contained an express Provision that the Contracts to be entered into by the Secretary of State in Council pursuant to that Act, might be so made; and from and after the passing of this Act all Contracts in Writing, entered into by the Secretary of State in Council, with the concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting, may be expressed to be made by the Secretary of State in Council under that Designation, and if such as if made between private Persons would be by Law required to be under Seal may be made, varied, or discharged, under the Hands and Seals of Two Members of the Council, or if such as if made between private Persons would be by Law required to be signed by the Parties to be charged therewith, may be made, varied, or discharged under the Hands of Two Members of the Council; and the Benefit and Liability of such Contracts shall pass to the Secretary of State in Council for the Time being.

VI. All Actions, Suits, and Proceedings in any Court of Justice in respect of any of the Matters aforesaid, shall and may be carried on, prosecuted, or defended in the Name of the Secretary of State for India in Council.

No. 130 of 1860.—The leave to Sea, on Sick Certificate, granted to Captain C. D. Grant, of the 11th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, Deputy Commissioner, Rangoon, in Government General Order, No. 1656 of the 14th December 1858,* is cancelled, at that Officer's own request.

* Madras G. O. G. 28th December 1858, No. 511.

No. 138 of 1860.—Advances of Pay proper, to the extent of three months, are authorized to be issued to Officers of Her Majesty's Forces, on their quitting India to join Regiments or Battalions to which they may be posted at Home or elsewhere.

Such advances are to be noted on the last Pay Certificates furnished to Officers.
