Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 13th April 1861.

No. 23. Read the following letter from R. P. HARRISON, Esq., W. BALMAIN, Esq., and J. R. BOYSON, Esq., to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 26th March 1861, No. 421.

With reference to Proceedings of Government, No. 569, October 8th 1859, we have the onor to report that we have on several occasions met at the General Treasury, and having peronally examined the various deposits to which the Government refer, we beg now to submit a Memorandum showing the manner in which we would recommend that they be severally disposed of.

2nd. In several cases the Orders of Government have already been received and the articles nd documents disposed of accordingly, but we think it best to re-submit the original Statement furnished by the Sub-Treasurer in which is noted in red ink opposite to each number, the manner in which we consider it should be treated.

3rd. We beg to state that every document and paper the destruction of which is recommended has been carefully scrutinized by the Government Solicitor.

4th. In regard to the place in which the deposits to be retained should be kept, the Committee are of opinion that the Treasury is the safest and most convenient place.

No. 24. ORDER THEREON; 13th April 1861, No. 190.

The Government approve of the mode in which the Committee recommend that the various deposits in the General Treasury should be disposed of, and direct that it be carried out accord-ngly. Such of the deposits as are to be retained will continue to be kept in the Treasury as proposed—and those documents and papers the destruction of which is recommended by the Committee will be destroyed under the personal supervision of the Sub-Treasurer and forwarded to he Superintendent of Stationery to be sold as waste paper, except those documents that are to be burnt in the presence of the Sub-Treasurer.

2. The Accountant General will report what progress has been made towards carrying out he Orders of Government, dated the 6th July 1860, relative to the deposits in the Local Treauries, as also what has been done under the Orders of Government, 29th August 1860, in respect o the Securities held on account of the late Government Agency.
