28th May 1861.*

No. 62. Read the following letter from C. HUGH LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 6th May 1861, No. 5,349.

In reply to your letter, No. 138, dated 12th March last, I am directed to state that the Governor General in Council does not see from

* No. 777, dated 19th January 1860.

Mr. Sandeman's letter* any sufficient reason why the Office Establishment of the Government

Savings' Bank at Madras is not susceptible of reduction when there is a positive diminution of work by the abolition of its Military branch. He thinks that the same No. of hands which was required to conduct the Military and the Civil portions of the Bank's business, cannot still be necessary when the Civil portion alone has to be conducted.

2. Nor is His Excellency in Council satisfied that when the work of the Bank has diminished, the salary of the Actuary should be increased.
