The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Financial Department Sir,

With reference to the rule contained in para. 11 Page 2 Chap. XX of the Madras Civil Auditor's Manual - viz. that, except in special cases, a pension is not tenable in addition to a salary or allowance from the Government, I am directed to enquire whether, in a case, in which it is proposed that, the whole or any portion of the pension shall be retained, and in which, it is necessary to treat the case specially, the Government of Madras passes orders on its own authority in accordance with precedents, or whether it refers each case to the Government of India in this Department specially for orders.

2. An analogous case to that of Mr. Lawrence referred to in the note to Para 11 has been ruled in Calcutta quite differently to the decision of the Madras Government

Government in that case.

The particulars of the grant of an hereditary pension to L. Babu Lal Magadhar of the Accountant-General's office, are also regarded as affording an example of a rule which is now under enquiry.

I have the honor to be,
