Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
10th October 1861.

No. 19. Read the following letter from C. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department; to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, Council Chamber, 9th September 1861, No. 11,321.

Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 432, dated 13th ultimo, with its enclosures, on the subject of the application of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Regulations to the officers and servants of the Supreme Court at Madras, who are admissible to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

2. In reply, I am desired to remark that the discretion of Her Majesty's Judges, with reference both to the occasions of granting leave of absence to the officers and servants of the Supreme Court, and to the period of time for which such leave should be granted, is to remain as unfettered as it has hitherto been.

3. It will be for the Government to determine according to the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, and the report of the Civil Paymaster as to the period and the nature of the leave of absence granted to each officer, how far such leave affects his pension, when his claim is submitted for consideration.

No. 20. To the Honorable Sir COLLEY HARMAN SCOTLAND, Knight, Chief Justice, and the Honorable Sir ADAM BITTLESTON, Knight, Puisne Justice of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, dated 10th October 1861, No. 496.

With reference to your letter, dated the 23rd July last, we have the honor to transmit for your information a copy of a communication from the Government of India on the subject of the application of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Regulations to the officers and servants of Her Majesty's Supreme Court at Madras, who are admissible to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

We have, &c.
