Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 5th February 1861.

Read the following Petition :—

No. 8. To the Right Honorable W. A. MOREHEAD, Esq., Officiating Governor in Council, Fort Saint George.

The Memorial of Widow LUTCHMOO UMMALL
residing near Casavah Permaul Covil at Chintadri-pett.

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

That Memorialist takes the liberty of submitting to the consideration of your Council, the following melancholy intelligence of the death of her husband T. Parthasardy Iyengar, Assistant Electric Telegraph Office at Vellore, who expired at Seerah on the 4th March last, leaving a disconsolate widow, with the burden of two children in her hands quite penniless, and destitute, without the most distant means of support, further than the small amount of savings from his salary amounting to Company's Rupees 500-0-0, which is deposited in the Madras Savings' Bank as per Book No. 246, who at his dying moments divulged that it was for the support of herself and her children.

That Memorialist has applied to the Secretary, and he says it is not transferrable, and that the letters of administration should accompany such request. Memorialist will not have the slightest objection with regard to the Council Chamber resting themselves satisfied by writing to the Superintendent of the Telegraph Department or derive the information, if true, from any other source that you may deem the most expedient. Under any circumstance it would be a piece of absurdity for her to pay 250 for Letters of Administration out of Rupees 500 left in the Savings' Bank. Memorialist is driven to the painful necessity to beg from one door to the other, and to lay open her deplorable case and they taking pity upon her and her helpless children, some give 2 Annas, others 3 or 4, sufficient for the supplies of one day, none the next and in this way she has been dragging existence for days, and weeks and months, for she dare not let those starve that depend upon her for support. Under these circumstances, Memorialist respectfully tender her submission, and throws herself and the children upon the merciful consideration of the Council Board.

With every sentiments of respect Memorialist as in duty bound will ever pray,

× T. LUTCHMOO UMMALL'S Mark,

Widow of late T. Parthasardy Iyengar
