No. 40. Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 19th February 1861, No. 87.

Mr. R. E. Master whilst acting as Sub-Collector and Joint Magistrate of the Godavari District will draw the salary of his substantive appointment of Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement, or Rupees 1,200 per mensem. So much of this salary as is equal to the deputation allowance of an acting Sub-Collector, or Rupees 233-5-4 per mensem, will be debited to the Revenue Department, and the remainder, or Rupees 966-10-8, will be charged against the Department of Revenue Settlement.

My dear Mr. K. G. Kraft,

If there is difficulty in filling up G. Van Aken's place in the Jordan District ~~for~~ the present moment, I think my Deputy there R. E. Maester might temporarily assume charge of the Subfollet's duties in addition to those of my department. The recent orders for separating the denomination and clarification duties in this party and the temporary cessation of the latter enables me to offer this suggestion. The Master has still much heavy & important work in completing the settlement of the District.

Master would of course continue to work under my orders in all settlement work, & he under Prior's in his subcollector's duties.

Both Prior's Master agree to the arrangement now suggested, & I have no fear of any clashing or confusion.
I should stipulate however that Master's salary for the time he holds the double office should be charged half to the Collectorate & half to the Revenue Settlement the fairness of this will doubtless be admitted.
The new settlement in the subcollectorate will

Hope he intended immediate relief & there will be a great advantage in Master's position as the Sub Col. to carry it out instead of some young inexperienced man. The arrangement will further the public interests and be an economical one as regards my Dept. as well as the Rev. Dept. & a matter of some consequence just at present.

Yrs very truly
W. H. Smith
