Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 7th January 1862.

No. 15. Read the following letter from Major ROBERT GILL, on Special duty at Ajunta; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 23rd December 1861.

I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from the Civil Paymaster, and to request that you will be so good as to solicit Government to sanction payment of my salary and Department, as advances, to be adjusted by Bills on receipt of the sanction to the Supplemental Budget.

From W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to Major R. GILL, European Veterans, Ajunta, dated 13th December 1861.

I have the honor to inform you that the funds which have been provided in the sanctioned Budget on account of allowances of yourself and Establishment have been nearly exhausted, there being a balance of only Rupees 373-8 available for the current month, I shall not therefore be able to admit more than that sum on your next Abstract.

The Accountant General has made further provision on this account in his Supplemental Budget, but until that is sanctioned, you should obtain the sanction of Government to the payment of your salary, &c., as advances to be adjusted by Bills on receipt of the sanction to the Supplemental Budget.

(A true Copy.)

(Signed) ROBERT GILL, Major.

No. 16. ORDER THEREON, 7th January 1862, No. 10.

Resolved, that the Accountant General be requested to issue the necessary instructions for the disbursement of the salaries of Major Gill, and his Establishment, as advances, pending the sanction of the Government of India to the Supplemental Budget.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
