Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
15th February 1862.

Read again letter from the Accountant General, dated 7th February 1862, No. 304, and recorded in the Proceedings of the same date No. 112.

No. 75. ORDER THEREON, 15th February 1862, No. 142.

The Government approve the subjoined Rules submitted by the Accountant General, embodying the arrangements which will be required for the performance of the Sub-Treasurer's duties on the transfer of the Treasury business to the Bank of Madras, and authorize their being acted on. These Rules will be communicated to all Departments, Officers and others who are in any way likely to be affected by them—and will also be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette, for general information.

2. Application will be made to the Judges of H. M.'s Supreme Court for their sanction to transfer the Securities, &c., now lodged in the Accountant General's Office and the Treasury to the Bank of Madras, as provided for in Rule No. 5. The Administrator General will be informed of this arrangement, as being applicable to the Deposits referred to in Rule No. 10.

3. The Government extend the period for which the Bank of Madras are empowered to issue Notes from the 25th instant, the date on which the year's notice given to them will expire, to the 28th instant inclusive.

4. In paragraph 2 of his letter the Accountant General suggests, in lieu of the practice hitherto observed with respect to the issue of supply Bills, that the amounts available in each district should, as now, be advertised in the Official Gazette by the Officer in charge of the Resource Department, and parties invited to tender for such amounts as they may require; that a day be fixed for opening such tenders by the Officer in charge of the Resource Department and the highest tenders accepted; and that on the authority of the Officer in charge of the Resource Department, the supply Bills be issued by the Bank of Madras. The Government authorize this mode of procedure being adopted.

No. 76. To the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 15th February 1862, No. 143.

HONORABLE SIRs,

You will have perceived from the Notification published as a Supplement to the Fort Saint George Gazette, under date the 7th instant, that the business of the General Treasury, from the 1st Proximo, is to be transferred, on certain terms therein specified, to the Bank of Madras.

2. We have the honor to request that, with your permission, the Securities, &c., now lodged in the Accountant General's Office or in the Treasury on account of your Court may from the 1st of March next be deposited with the Bank of Madras. The Directors of the Bank have waived their claim to any commission on the sale or purchase of the Capital Stock of such Securities, and will only retain their charge of $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. commission on drawing interest on them.

3. We would add that a like arrangement has been acceded to by their Honors the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Calcutta.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. F. Cartledge,

2. Application will be made to the Judges of H. M's Supreme Court for their sanction to transfer the Security ^{is} now lodged in the Accountant General's Office, and the Treasury to the Bank of Madras, as provided for in Rule No 5. The Administrator General will be informed of this arrangement, as being applicable to the Deposits referred to in Rule No 10.

3. The Govt extend the period for which the Bank of Madras are empowered to issue notes from the 25th instant - the date on which the year's notice given to them will expire - to the 28th instant inclusive.
