Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 27th March 1862.

No. 78. Read the following letter from F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General; to the Honorable T. PYCROFT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 20th March 1862, No. 348.

Budget and Finance Department.

I have the honor to submit, herewith, copy of a letter from the Resident of Travancore and Cochin dated the 10th instant, No. 383, and of its enclosures, being a letter from the Officiating Civil Paymaster under date the 28th ultimo, No. 250, and a Supplemental Estimate for Rupees 7,690-14 on account of Pay of Major H. Drury of the Staff Corps, Assistant Resident, for the year 1861-62; and for the reasons stated in the above communications, to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to the enclosed Supplemental Budget Estimate.

From F. N. MALTBY, Esq., Resident of Travancore and Cochin; to F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Accountant General, Fort Saint George, dated Neyattencurray, 10th March 1862, No. 383.

Adverting to the enclosed copy of a communication from the Officiating Civil Paymaster, No. 250 of the 28th ultimo, I have the honor to submit a further Supplemental Estimate for 1861-62, on account of Pay to Major Drury of the Staff Corps.

2. By G. O. G., No. 20 of the 14th January 1862, it was ruled, that the Pay of an Officer of the Staff Corps who holds a Civil post should be charged in the Civil Department, and it is owing to Major Drury holding the appointment of Assistant Resident, I conclude that this Department is required to provide for the charge.

3. As this rule was not in force when the Estimate was prepared, provision was not made for this outlay which consequently now calls for special sanction.

Acting 2nd Assistant Accountant General.

From W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to F. N. MALTBY, Esq., Resident of Travancore and Cochin, dated 28th February 1862, No. 250.

Political Department.

1. As Major H. Drury, Commandant of the Resident's Escort, was not in India when the Budget of 1861-62 was prepared, his pay and allowance were not provided for in the Military Budget, neither have they been included in the Civil Budget, and there is a difficulty therefore in admitting his abstracts. Seeing however that the charge is a duly authorized one, and that any further delay would be productive of much inconvenience to Major Drury, I have passed the abstracts against the unexpended amount of your sanctioned Budget for 1861-62, and request that you will take steps to obtain a supplemental grant* for the same.

2. From 18th February 1861, Major Drury is not entitled to any Military allowances except his Staff Corps pay.
