ORDER THEREON, 23rd February 1861, No. 399.

1. At the suggestion of the Civil Finance Commission, the Government of India, under date 26th October last, called upon this Government to make an immediate and special revision of Temporary Establishments. Pursuant to this order the Chief Engineer and Board of Revenue were required to revise such Establishments in their respective Departments and to report thereon, and the present letter is Colonel Horsley's reply. The temporary Establishments employed in the Department Public Works are few and small, amounting in the aggregate to no more than Rupees 458-8-0 monthly. They are all necessary; and the Government quite agree with the Chief Engineer that no immediate reduction can be effected in them.
