Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 13th January 1862.

No. 54. Proceedings of Government, dated 13th January 1862, No. 37.

The Government proceed to record the following remarks on the Budget Estimates of the Sudder and Subordinate Courts for the Official year 1862-63.

2. No. I, is a Statement of Revenues and Receipts—being fees, fines and forfeitures, proceeds of unclaimed Estates, and other trifling items—which are estimated at Rupees 2,95,203, or a decrease of Rupees 22,013 below the estimate of the preceding year. These receipts are variable and call for no remark.

3. Estimate No. II, of the salaries and allowances of the Judges, &c., Establishments, Contingencies and other expenses of the Sudder Court, presents a small increase of Rupees 3,780 over the estimated expenditure of 1861-62, the aggregate charge under this head for 1862-63 being set down at Rupees 2,66,768. The increase is chiefly on account of temporary Establishment of Translators and Deputation allowance to Uncovenanted Servants not chargeable to the Civil Absentee Fund.

4. Statement No. III, is an estimate of the charges on account of the Civil and Session and other Subordinate Courts. The amount of the estimate is Rupees 16,59,633, or Rupees

No. IV, is an Abstract.

* Additional Moonsiffs—Increase	Rupees 11,400 0 0.	12,273*	in excess of that for 1861-62, arising
Saderward and Contingencies	7,849 0 0.		from the additional Moonsiff's Courts proposed to be established in certain Zillahs, and from temporary establishments under which there is an increase of Rupees 7,799. The charge however for the Honore Zillah should be struck out of the Budget Estimate, as the Province of North Canara will probably be transferred to the Bombay Government before the 1st of May next.

5. No. VII, "Superannuation and Retired allowances, and Gratuities for charitable and other purposes." There is an increase of Rupees 12,130 set down under this head. Under a late ruling of the Government of India, it is not necessary to provide for new grants of pensions and gratuities, as already intimated to the Accountant General.

6. With these remarks the Government direct the transmission of the Budget Estimate of the Sudder Court for 1862-63 to the Accountant General.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
