No. 18. From Mr. ROBERT CARR; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government Madras, dated 19th May 1862.

I have the honor to address you with reference to certain sums of money now lying in the Government Savings' Bank deposited by me in the names of three of my children who are minors.

Almost since the foundation of the Bank I have been a depositor and have been induced to keep my money there in preference to private Banks for the sake of greater security.

In no instance up to the present time have I been prevented withdrawing the deposits in the names of my children though minors, which the Books will prove, and further the sums standing in their names are not intended as legacies, but are merely so divided as the Bank's Rules only allow a certain amount to be deposited by one individual; for the further satisfaction of Government I annex copies of notes from the late Actuary (Mr. Clark) on the subject, and feeling satisfied that monies placed in the Bank in the names of my children may be withdrawn as heretofore, and not having seen the notification of Government altering the Rule, I as usual paid in monies from time to time which I certainly should not have done if I had seen the notification in question, but would have at once withdrawn amounts already at the credit of my children under the old Rule, as I mentioned before they not being intended for their benefit, other arrangements for that purpose being in existence.

My attention has been called to the notification only lately by the late Assistant Accountant General Mr. Gordon, when I wished to withdraw a portion of the money, which of course much surprised me and put me to considerable inconvenience.

I trust that the explanation offered above will prove satisfactory to Government that the deposits in my Children's names are for quite a different purpose to legacies, and as I have been acting under perfect ignorance of the new Rule and as the retention of these deposits in the Savings' Bank will put me to great inconvenience I shall feel much obliged by your laying the matter before the Government, and obtaining the necessary sanction for my withdrawal of the same.

My children being all grown up, viz :

James about 19 years,

Ebenezer about 17 years,

Lydia Caroline about 13 years, will pass Receipts for the deposits in their names.

Copies of letters from the late Actuary Mr. CLARK, referred to above.

My dear Mr. Carr,

I have much pleasure in sending you a book for Lydia, and have credited Rupees 173-12, in Ebenezer's book. I have not made the withdrawals as you can now deposit as far as Rupees 2,500, after that no further deposits will be received but Interest will be allowed till it accumulates to Rupees 3,000 when no further Interest will be allowed.

Besides which when parties withdraw they should write or call in person, I hope that you will approve of what I have done.

Yours, &c.

(Signed) THOMAS CLARK.

7th May 1861.

My dear Mr. Carr,

Whenever you wish to withdraw on account of your children, please let them or you send a note stating that they cannot call in person, and it will be passed, there will be no difficulty in the matter.

Yours, &c.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 5th June 1862.

Referred for the report of the Officiating Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank, with reference to paragraph 3 of his letter dated 7th October 1861, No. 608.

FORT SAINT-GEORGE,
20th May 1862.

Acting Chief Secretary.

No. 19. From J. MACKEY, Esq., Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 27th May 1862, No. 120.

With reference to the letter from Mr. Robert Carr to your address, referred to this Department for report (herewith returned), I have the honor to state that the deposits were made in the names of his 3 children by Mr. R. Carr prior to the revision of Rule 12 of the Bank, and as he was then ignorant of the fact that the Rule would be subsequently altered, I think that his request may be complied with, provided that the children attend the Bank in person with their father the original depositor, they being of such age as fully to understand the nature of the transaction.

As there are weekly many similar applications made to withdraw sums, I think it desirable the Secretary to the Bank should have discretionary power to dispose of all such matter, without the necessity of Government being always referred to; if any difficulty arises the Secretary has always two Directors to whom he can go for advice, viz, the Accountant General and Brigade Major.

No. 20. ORDER THEREON, 5th June 1862, No. 426.

Ordered that the first para. of the letter from the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank be communicated to Mr. Robert Carr, who is requested to attend at the Bank with his three children, when the deposits made in their names will be withdrawn and paid to him.

2. As suggested in the second para., similar applications for the withdrawal of deposits will in future be disposed of by the Secretary to the Savings' Bank without reference to Government.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.
