Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 14th June 1862.

No. 55. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Accountant General; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 7th June 1862, No. 53.

Budget and Finance Department.

1. I have the honor to enclose copy of the Supplementary Budget received from the Surgeon Major, Royal Artillery, Hyderabad Subsidiary Force, for the sum of Rupees 180, on account of the pay of the Meteorological Writer for 1862-63, omitted to be provided for in the Budget Estimate for that year. This amount can be met from the provision made in the Budget on account of Library allowance for Government Central Museum not yet sanctioned by the Madras Government amounting to Rupees 3,000 under F. V. Education, Science and Art, to which head the pay of the Meteorological Writer is debitable.

2. I therefore request that you will be pleased to authorize the Civil Paymaster to pass these charges against the provision referred to in the preceding paragraph.

From DONALD MACFARLANE, Esq., Surgeon Major, Royal Artillery, H. S. Force; to the Deputy Inspector General of Hospital, H. S. Force, Secunderabad, dated 23rd May 1862, No. 133.

I have the honor to forward to you, for your countersignature and transmission to the proper authorities, a Supplementary Budget in the Civil Department, for the pay of the Meteorological Writer for 1862-63. Owing to no Civil transactions being required in the Artillery Hospital here, this was overlooked while sending in the Military Budget, and in consequence the Meteorological Writer's pay cannot be drawn until this Supplementary Budget is sent in.
