Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 1st July 1862.

No. 1. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 25th June, 1862, No. 79.

Budget and Finance Department.

I have the honor to forward herewith, 5 Bills received from the Resident of Travancore and Cochin, on account of the batta due to his Escort, and to state that no provision was made for this charge in the Budget Estimate for 1861-62, for reasons assigned in the 2nd paragraph of my separate letter to Government of this day's date, viz., that it was hitherto borne as a Military charge. The Resident estimates that the charges on this account for 1861-62, will not exceed 200 Rupees, I request therefore that the Civil Paymaster may be authorized to pass the charges of that year to the above extent, out of the savings in the Budget of 1861-62, under the head "VI, Political Agencies and other Foreign Services" "Travelling charges of the Resident and Establishment," on which account the sum of Rupees 5,375 was estimated, but only Rupees 3,184 were disbursed up to April last.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 1st July 1862, No. 481.

Resolved accordingly that the Civil Paymaster be authorized to pass the charges on account of batta to the Resident's Escort for 1861-62, against the savings in the item of "Travelling charges," under the head "Section VI Political Agencies and other Foreign Services," of the Budget for that year.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Acting Chief Secretary.
