Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 16th July 1862.

No. 54. Read the following letter from the Honorable E. DRUMMOND, Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department; to the Civil Pay Master, Bombay, Fort William, Council Chamber, dated the 14th June 1862, No. 4,160.

Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 197, of the 17th ultimo, requesting to be informed, with reference to Section XII of the Civil Absentee Rules, whether an officer whose appointment is changed while he is absent on privilege leave must return to his station before he can draw his allowances for the period of his absence; and enquiring, with reference to Section XX, which prescribes forfeiture of salary as a penalty for exceeding joining time, whether an officer who was on Dewanee allowance when he was appointed to an office could, if he exceeded his joining time, fall back upon his Dewanee allowance for the period of excess.

2. As regards the first point, the rule, I am requested to observe, is perfectly clear. It requires return to duty not to station, and therefore an officer must be considered to have fulfilled its conditions when he reports his presence in due time, wherever the Government may have directed him to serve.

3. On the second point, I am desired to remark that Dewanee, if it means subsistence allowance, is affected by Section XX of the rules like salary; and to suggest that you should abstain from the use of local oriental terms without stating their English meaning.

No. 4,161.

Ordered, that copies of the foregoing letter be forwarded, for information and guidance, to the Governments and the Civil Pay Masters in Bengal, Madras, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab, as well as to the Governments of Bombay, and the Straits Settlements.

No. 55.

ORDER THEREON, 16th July 1862, No. 524.

To be recorded.
