Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
29th August 1862.

No. 102. To the Government Solicitor, dated Fort Saint George, 29th August 1862, No. 639.

Numerous defalcations have recently been discovered in the Government Savings' Bank, which can be traced to the late Actuary Mr. Clark now deceased. I am directed by the Government to request that you will inform them what steps should be taken to enable the Government to claim, in satisfaction of the deficit in the Savings' Bank, such Estate as may have been left by the late Actuary Mr. Clark.

An application has been made by the Administrator General for the balance of salary due to Mr. Clark up to the time of his death, from which circumstance the Government are led to suppose that the Administrator General is administering to Mr. Clark's Estate.
