Sir,

I have the honor by order of the Commander in Chief in returning the Catalogue of duplicate books in the Library of the Indian Office received with Proceedings of Government No 615 of the 22d ultimo, to report for the information of Government that the Soldiers generally shew a preference for light reading as recently reported to Government in the Military Department. Hence from among the many valuable books in the Catalogue only a few, of an entertaining description, have been selected.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
