The extra establishment, consisting of 4 Gomastahs and 2 Attendants for the Record room of the Calicut Zillah Court, was sanctioned by the Government of India, under date the 3rd July 1861, No. 8,900, for a further period of two years. This sanction would have expired in November next, but the Sudder Court brought to notice that the Gomastahs had destroyed the records of 2 Mooniffs Courts for 20 years and those of another Court for 13 years, but that there still remained the arrears, calculating up to 1842, (20 years back) as shown in the margin. By the time the Gomastahs could clear away these, they would have to begin again with the accumulations of the 14 Mooniffs Courts in this Zillah, so as to leave

Allowance to a Minister at Tranquebar.

This establishment was required for lowering and hoisting the ladders and tub, for preserving order and protecting property on the Pier, and for levying the toll.

There being no Chaplain at Tranquebar, the Reverend S. W. Coultrip, formerly a Missionary of the Society for Propagating the Gospel, has on the recommendation of the Bishop, and under the general authority conveyed in the late Court's Despatch of the 11th August No. 5 of 1858, para. 19, been placed in spiritual charge of the Station—his allowance, while so employed, will be met from the savings in the Estimate for the Tranquebar Chaplaincy.

So long as he may minister to the spiritual wants of the members of the Church of England resident at Tranquebar.
