Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
13th October 1862.

No. 34. Proceedings of Government, dated 13th October 1862, No. 723.

It is observed that the Accountant General now furnishes for the information of Government a copy of every Circular issued from his Office to Collectors and other Officers in charge of Treasuries. Many of these comprise instructions on mere routine business, and the transmission of such to this Department may be discontinued in future. The Accountant General will hereafter furnish copies of only those Circulars which he may consider of sufficient importance to be communicated to Government.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
