Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 10th November 1862.

No. 31. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Accountant General; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 31st October 1862, No. 262.

I have the honor to forward in original a letter from the Collector of South Arcot, regarding the refund of the premium hitherto levied on Privilege Remittance Receipts drawn on Madras.

2. The Collector requests that the question may be submitted for the Orders of the Government of India; but as the decision of this Government on the matters at issue would appear to be sufficient authority for the refund, should they agree with the Collector, I have refrained from forwarding it to the Supreme Government.

3. Copies of the correspondence on the subject are herewith enclosed, together with the Circular issued on receipt of Government Proceedings, No. 702, dated 6th instant.

From C. W. READE, Esq., Collector of South Arcot; to H. A MANGLES, Esq., Acting Accountant General, Madras, dated Cuddalore, 21st October 1862, No. 116.

In reference to your Circular No. 175, dated 9th instant, directing that a fifth heading be added to the list contained in your Circular of the 4th July last, No. 132, permitting the grant of Privilege Remittance Receipts to "all Officers in Civil employ" to the extent of their monthly "allowances on Madras only," I have the honor to submit a Memorandum of the premium collected subsequent to the receipt of your first instructions, and as the para. 73 of the amended Rules for Bills of Exchange has been declared not applicable to this Presidency, I presume this money must be repaid to the parties from whom received, and I accordingly solicit your authority to reimburse the amount.

In acknowledging receipt of your letter, No. 116, dated 21st instant, I have the honor to inform you that, as the permission to grant Privilege Remittance Receipts at par on Madras came into force only from the date of receipt of my Circular No. 175, that is from the 11th instant, I regret I cannot authorize you to reimburse any sum received on account of premium before that date.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
10*th November* 1862.

From CHARLES W. READE, Esq., Collector of South Arcot; to H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Accountant General, Fort Saint George, dated Cuddalore, 27th October 1862, No. 118.

I am in receipt of your letter of the 24th instant, No. 3,960, declining to authorize the reimbursement of the sums collected at my Treasury as premium on Privilege Remittance Receipts under the instructions conveyed in your letter No. 132 of the 4th July last.

2. In reply I beg to request that the question may be submitted for the Orders of the Government of India, as it seems to me obvious that reimbursement may be claimed as a matter of right. Your Circular letter No. 175 of the 9th instant, states that para. 73 of the annexed Rules for Bills of Exchange under which the premium was collected, has been declared not applicable to this Presidency, it follows therefore that the premium collected previously under a misconception of the rule cannot legally be retained, and must, as a matter of course, be returned to the parties who have thus been improperly taxed, and I feel satisfied that Government will not withhold re-payment of a fee erroneously collected.

No. 32. ORDER THEREON, 10th November 1862, No. 799.

The Governor in Council is of opinion that those Civil Servants who paid the premium of one per cent. on the Privilege Remittance Receipts granted to them on Madras are fairly entitled to a refund of the same, inasmuch as it was erroneously levied under a Rule that was not applicable to this Presidency; and he requests that the Accountant General will issue instructions accordingly to the Officers in charge of Mofussil Treasuries to reimburse the amount so levied.
