PROCEEDING OF THE MADRA GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from H. NEWILL, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 8th January 1862, No. 22:—

SIR,

Agreeably with the instructions contained in paragraph 24 of the Proceedings of Government, dated the 20th instant, No. 2,335, I have the honor to forward herewith a tabular Statement showing the Budget assignment for the Revenue Survey and Settlement Departments for the year 1861-62, the actual expenditure incurred during the five months from May to September 1861, and the probable expenditure in the course of the seven months from October 1861 to April 1862 both inclusive, with full explanations for the variations between the actual and estimated results during the periods above specified. It will be seen that the expenditure for the year amounts to Rupees 8,48,596 or 41,310 more than the amount of the original Budget estimate, and Rupees 88,936 below the total amount of the original and Supplemental Budgets, as intimated in my reply* to your telegram under date the 19th November last.

* 20th November 1861.

ORDER THEREON, 25th January 1862, No. 104.

1. The Supplemental Budget for 1861-62, originally submitted by the Director of Revenue Settlement for his own and the Survey Department amounted to Rupees 96,235. It was however returned for further explanation, and this is now submitted.

2. Mr. Newill now estimates the expenditure of 1861-62, at Rupees 8,48,596, or Rs. 41,310, above the original estimate. In this amount, however, are included Rupees 37,678 on account of the Regimental pay and allowances of Military Officers, for which a provision of Rupees 35,663 appears (by the Accountant General's Note on the Supplemental Budget) to have been made in the Military Budget. The net amount of excess over the original Budget of the Department is therefore (41,310—35,663=) Rupees 5,647.

3. The Government resolve, however, for the sake of safety to allow Rupees 16,235 or Rupees 80,000, less than was first sought.

4. The Accountant General will arrange for the necessary transfer of Rupees 35,663 from the Military Budget.
