*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

No. 67. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 18th December 1862, No. 316.

Budget and Finance Department.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, dated 13th April last, No. 289, I have the honor to forward two Estimates for 1863-64, one for receipts and the other for charges comprising such items as are not provided for by heads of Departments, with explanations in the column of Remarks of the variations between the amounts entered in 1863-64 compared with 1862-63. These Estimates have been prepared partly from the information obtained from Collectors and other Officers, and partly from information available in this office.

2. I have, under the Resolution of the Government of India, dated 18th November last, No. 978a, which appears to have been communicated to all the Local Governments, added a sum of Rupees 50,000 under F IX, Miscellaneous, as a reserve to meet unforeseen contingencies.

3. I have to request that you will be so good as to return them after revision, in order that they may be embodied in the Budget Estimate now under preparation.

To Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, dated 15th May 1862, No. 592.

2. This Government having again, in the letter noted in the margin, recommended to the Government of India, that the maximum limit of the grant to the Friend-in-Need Society should be fixed at 700 Rupees per mensem, His Excellency in Council is of opinion that provision to this extent should be made in the Budget for 1863-64, and he accordingly directs that the sum of Rupees 8,400 be entered in lieu of Rupees 3,600 the amount of the present grant.

3. The other items provided for in the Estimates call for no remark.
