Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 7th March 1863.

No. 23. Read the following letter from J. L. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Accountant General, Madras; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 3rd March 1863, No. 417.

Budget and Finance Department.

With reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, I have the honor to request you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to my entertaining a temporary establishment, as in last year, for re-printing 20 copies of the Budget Estimates for 1863-64, at an estimated cost of Rupees 220 exclusive of materials which will not be required this year. The work must be done as expeditiously as possible, as the Civil Paymaster will require these Estimates in time to allow him to open Registers to pass the charges early in May next.

2. In re-printing the Estimates in question with figures and remarks complete, the blank pages inapplicable to this Presidency, but which were required in the copies submitted to the Government of India, and to the Auditor General of India, as also the cut pages, will be avoided. In the copies re-printed last year, the items against which no figures were entered, were not altogether omitted, but this will be done in the Estimates to be re-printed this year, and which will, in some measure, reduce the bulk of the Budget.

No. 24. ORDER THEREON, 7th March 1863, No. 163.

The Governor in Council sanctions the temporary establishment required by the Accountant General for re-printing 20 copies of the Budget Estimates of 1863-64, at a cost of Rupees 220, which will be defrayed from the amount provided for "unforeseen Contingencies" in the Budget for that year.
