Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
13th January 1863.

No. 30. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Civil Fund; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 9th January 1863, No. 7.

Referring to the Despatch from the Home Government on the subject of the Civil Service Annuities published in the Gazette on 6th instant, I have the honor to forward copies of letters* addressed to me by Mr. Williamson on the subject of his Annuity, and to request that if you have not received from him any direct application for permission to resign the service, you will obtain the permission of Government to Gazette his resignation of the service from the date on which the new rules came into operation, which from para. 5 of Sir Charles Wood's letter I presume will be 25th November 1862, the date of the Despatch.

* 1 not dated but received on 27th October 1862.
1 Dated 8th December 1862.

From R. H. WILLIAMSON, Esq., Madras Civil Service; to the Secretary to the Madras Civil Fund, received on 27th October 1862.

1. I beg to apply for one of the Annuities available on the 1st May 1863, or at any earlier period.

2. Should one of these be assigned to me, I hereby engage to tender my resignation of the Honorable Company's Service on or before the abovementioned date, or to forfeit a sum of ten thousand Rupees, as provided for by the terms of Rule 10.

3. It is my wish to secure the full amount to which my subscriptions may entitle me, under the rules which may be in force on the date of my resignation.

4. I was born on the fifth day of April 1810.

I desire that my Annuity may be paid in India, into the hands of my Agents, Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co.

From R. H. WILLIAMSON, Esq., Madras Civil Service; to the Secretary to the Civil Fund
Madras, dated Figheldean, Amesbury, Wiltshire, 8th December 1862.

Understanding that revised Rules with respect to Civil Pensions and Annuities, have been passed by the Home Authorities and forwarded to India for promulgation, whereby the Pension to Civil Servants retiring, has been increased from five hundred to six hundred Pounds a year, and limitation as to the number of Pensions and Annuities annually granted abolished. I have the honor, with reference to my letter to your address dated the — of October last, to request that I may be allowed to avail myself of all benefits accorded by the revised Rules adverted to, receiving the Pension and Annuity to which I am entitled from the date on which they may come into operation.
