Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
8th April 1863.

No. 13 Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Secretary to the Government Savings Bank; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 27th March 1863, No. 1,071.

* Republished in G. O. Q. T., dated Her Majesty's Adjutant General's Office, Madras, 9th January 1863.

With reference to G. O. C. C.,* dated Head Quarters, Camp Morar, 28th November 1862, communicating to the Army the decision of the Government of India, relative to an increased rate of interest on Regimental Savings' Banks Deposits, and the removal of the present restriction as to the amount of such deposits, I have the honor to inquire whether any orders on the subject have been received by Government in the Financial Department.

2. The publication of the above order has occasioned various references to this Department by Officers Commanding Corps and Brigades of Artillery, requesting to be informed from what date the new rate of interest is to commence; but having received no instructions, I have been unable to afford them any information on the subject.

3. It would appear from the concluding part of the order in question, that the privileges specified therein, have been only recommended by the Government of India in the Military Department for sanction in the Financial Department of that Government.

No. 14 ORDER THEREON, 8th April 1863, No. 241.

The Secretary to the Savings' Bank is informed that no orders have been received by this Government on the subject to which his letter refers.
