Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
13th January 1863.

Read the following papers :—

No. 34. From P. IRVINE, Esq., Madras Civil Service; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, Madras, dated 40, Leicester Square, London, 6th December 1862.

Having been informed that a Despatch has been sent from the East India Office allowing the rules for the retirement of Civilians and extending its advantages to those who may resign the service after the date of the Memorial forwarded from India, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to lay before Government my application to be admitted to the benefits of that Despatch from the date of my resignation of the service.

No. 35. From F. H. CROZIER, Esq.; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, dated the Elms, Lymington, Hants, 6th December 1862.

In case my letter to your address sent through Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., at Madras, shall miscarry, I write a duplicate to request the Government will be pleased to issue and transmit to the Home India Office the necessary instruction, to enable me to avail myself of the annuity of £600 and the amount obtainable upon the sums I have paid to the Civil Fund, as recently authorized by the Secretary of State in Council.

No. 36. From F. COPLESTON, Esq.; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Rusham House, Egham, Surrey, 1st December 1862.

Understanding that a Despatch has been forwarded by the Secretary of State for India, bearing date 25th November 1862, to the effect that the Government may accept the resignation of any Civilian who has completed 25 years' service and 22 years' actual residence in India, on a pension from Government of £600 a year; and as much more from the Civil Fund, up to £400 per annum as they pay up for, I have the honor to request that the Governor in Council will be pleased to allot to me an annuity under the provisions of the abovenamed Despatch that I may be permitted to resign the service, and that my pension may commence from this date.

It is my wish that my pension should be made payable quarterly in England.

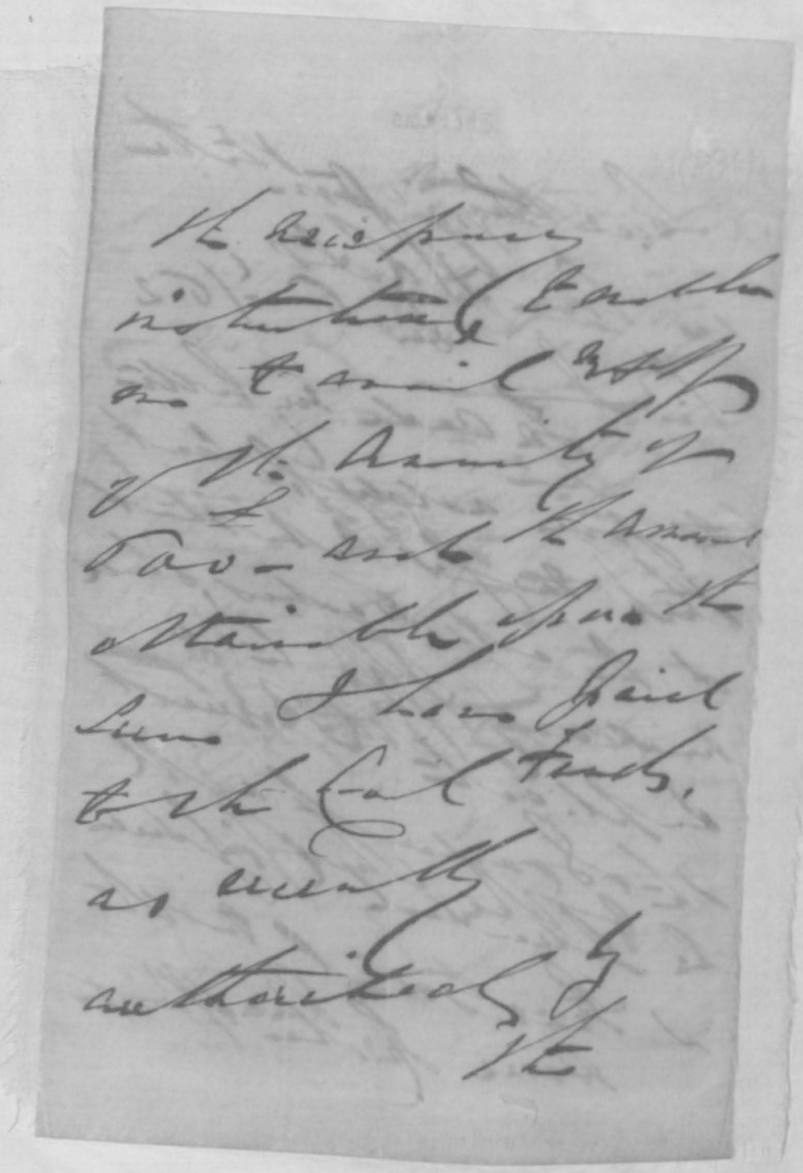

No. 37. ORDER THEREON, 13th January 1863, No. 26.

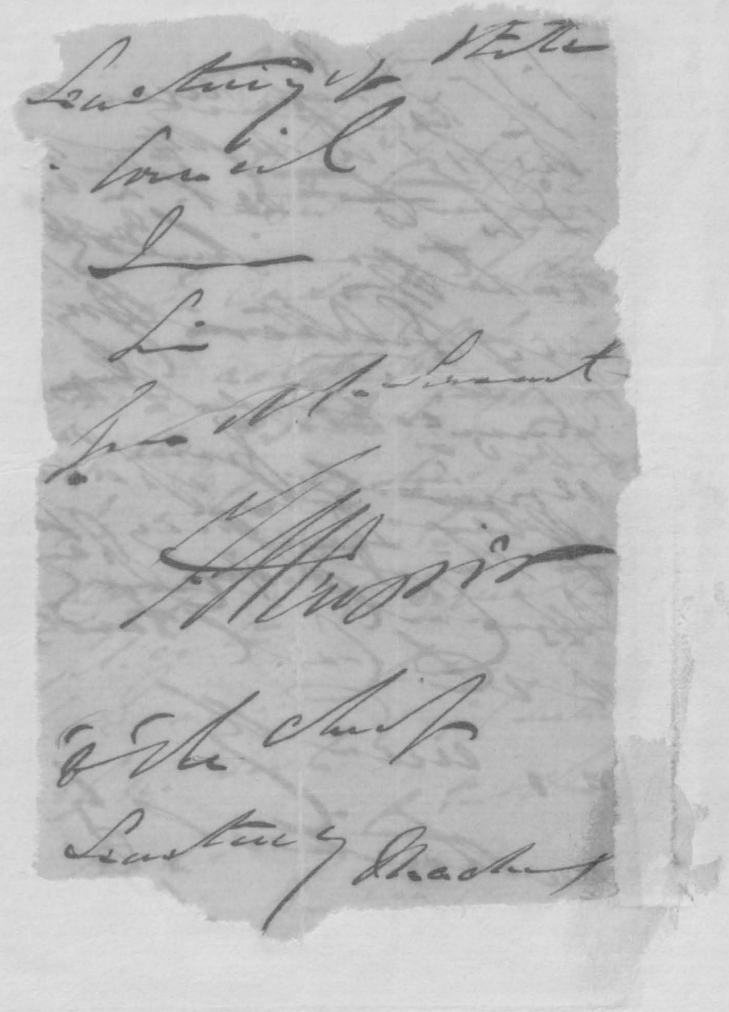

It is observed that the applications of Messrs. P. Irvine and F. H. Crozier have already been disposed of in the Order of Government of the 10th instant, No. 19, under which they have been admitted to the higher annuity of £600 sanctioned by the Secretary of State from the 25th November 1862.

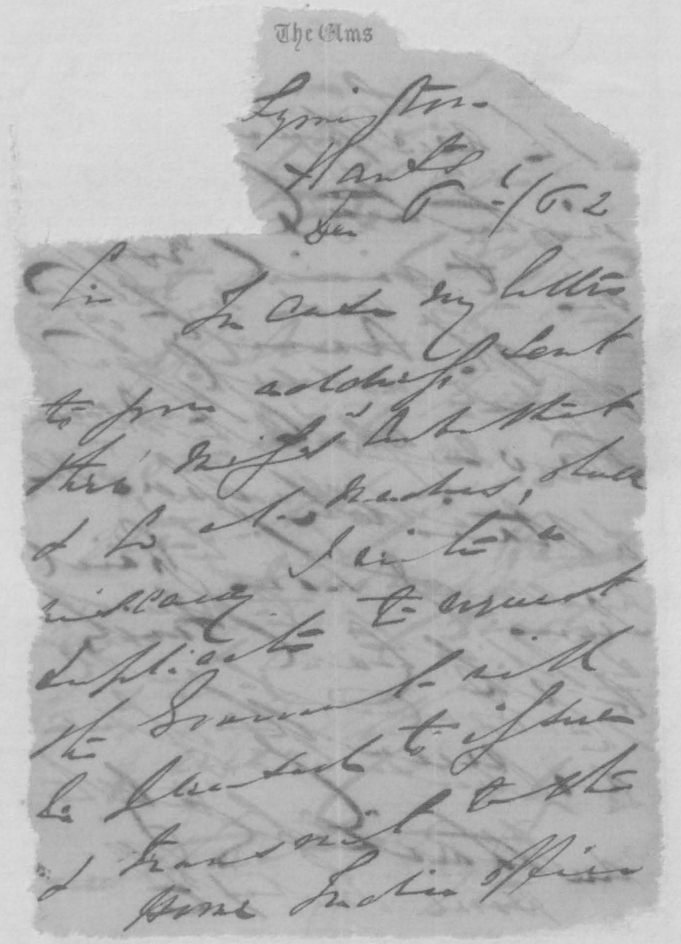

2. Resolved that Mr. F. Copleston be permitted to resign the service from the 1st December last, and that he be admitted to the annuity of £600 from that date, under the terms of the Secretary of State's Despatch, 25th November, No. 193 of 1862.
