Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 6th June 1863.

N. 5. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Accountant General; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 23rd May 1863, No. 35.

Budget and Finance Department.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of Government, dated 16th instant, No. 334, Financial Department, and to state in reply that the necessary adjustment to the credit of Military Department can be made in the books of this office for 1862-63, on account of the cost of Military guards supplied to the Madras Mint and Bank, during last official year; but as no provision has been made for the charge in question in the Budget Estimate for that year, I beg to suggest that they be met from savings expected under the heads, "B I, 7, Mint," and "F II, Salaries and Expenses of Public Departments."

2. The savings under the former head amount to about Rupees 44,000,* and arise chiefly from the short debit, on account of Stores received from England and the freight payable thereon, as shown in the margin.

* Budget grant under B. I-7, Mint..... 2,94,000
Actual charges for 1862-63 up to 30th April 1863. 2,48,950
Savings..... 44,050

3. Under the latter head there are large savings† in the Ecclesiastical Department owing to the absence, on leave in England, of Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains; these savings may be availed of, to meet the cost of Military guards furnished to the Madras Bank, the charge on account of both of these Departments, viz., Bank of Madras and Ecclesiastical Department, being debitable to the same Budget head of service, viz., "F II, Salaries and Expenses of Public Departments."

† Vide letter from this office, dated 7th March 1863.

4. If the Government be pleased to sanction the charge above alluded to being met from the savings pointed out in the two preceding paragraphs, the necessary adjustment will be made in the books of this office, and the same reported to the Controller of Military Finance.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 6th June 1863, No. 369.

Sanction is granted, as suggested, for the cost of the Military guards supplied to the Mint and Bank of Madras, during the past official year, being met from savings expected under the heads "B I, 7, Mint," and "F II, Salaries and Expenses of Public Departments."

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
