Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable Sir C. WOOD, Bart., Secretary of State for India; to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated India Office, London, 30th May 1863, No. 32.

1. Your Chief Secretary's Financial letter, dated the 24th March last, No. 203, forwarding a certificate from the Civil Paymaster to the effect that Mr. W. Donald, Chief Assistant Civil Paymaster's Office, Madras, at present in this country on sick leave, is entitled to an increase of salary, at the rate of Rupees 50 per mensem, from the 1st May 1863, and that his Absentee allowance should, from that date, be calculated on a salary of Rupees 450 per mensem.

2. That letter, however, forwarded no explanation of the reason of this increase, and as by Sections 11 and 12 of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, an Officer is not allowed to derive any benefit from the salary of a new appointment until he joins it. Mr. Donald's Absentee allowance will, pending the receipt of an explanation from your Government on the subject, be calculated, as heretofore, on a salary of Rupees 400 per mensem.

ORDER THEREON, 6th July 1863, No. 440.

Ordered that the foregoing Despatch be communicated to the Civil Paymaster, who will furnish the explanation required by the Right Honorable the Secretary of State.
