Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 10*th July* 1863.

No. 17. Read the following letter from Mr. H. BUCHAN, Executor to Estate of late G. M. A. Storey; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 29th June 1863.

Adverting to your Memorandum of the 24th May 1862, and the Accountant General's letter to Government which accompanied it, I do myself the honor now to forward through you an application to the Secretary to Government of India regarding the lost Government Promissory Note, and though a Government Notification requires expiry of two years in ordinary cases from the date of the last advertisement in the Fort Saint George Gazette of loss, before an application for a duplicate Note can be entertained, I yet hope the present may be considered a special case inasmuch as nearly nine years have passed away since the Government Bond in question was lost, and notwithstanding all the steps necessary have been taken, it has not yet been discovered.

No. 18. ORDER THEREON, 10th July 1863, No. 448.

Mr. Buchan is referred to the Notification of the Accountant General to the Government of India, dated 21st March last, and he is informed that he must comply with the conditions therein laid down before he can obtain a duplicate of the lost Promissory Note.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Govt.
Fort St. George.

Sir,

Adverting to your Memorandum of the 24th May 1862 and the Accountant General's letter to Government which accompanied it, I do myself the honor now to forward through you an application to the Secretary to Government of India regarding the lost Government Promissory Note, and though a Government Notification requires expiry of 2 years in ordinary Cases from the date of the last advertisement in the Fort St. George Gazette of 1858 before an application for a duplicate Note can be entertained, I yet hope the present may be considered a Special Case in as much as nearly nine years have passed away since the Government Bond in Question was lost and notwithstanding all the steps necessary have been taken, it has not yet been discovered.
