Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 11*th July* 1863.

Read the following papers :—

No. 25. From Mr. J. L. APPLETON, Bombay ; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Bombay, 6th May 1863.

In the year 1772, Ensign Charles Hare placed a sum of Rupees 20,000 in trust with the Madras Government, and died shortly afterwards.

I am instructed by the next of kin of the said deceased to ascertain if Her Majesty's Government will be prepared to satisfy his claim on the necessary proof being submitted to the consideration and approval of the authorities at Madras.

An early reply is respectfully requested.

Referred to the Accountant General, who will be good enough to furnish any information which the Records of his office may contain regarding the Trust money alluded to by Mr. Appleton.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,

No. 27. From R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General to the Government of Madras; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Madras, the 7th July 1863, No. 101.

Book and Adjustment Department.

Your references Nos.——dated 22nd and 29th ultimo.

The accounts have been examined for the years 1772-73-74-95-96 97, but no trace is discovered therein of the sum said to have been left in the possession of Government by Ensign Hare. It is submitted that some receipt must have been given to Ensign Hare when the money was deposited, and this document should be produced to aid in the discovery of the entry.

No. 28. To J. L. APPLETON, Esq., Bombay, dated Fort Saint George, 11th July 1863, No. 453.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letters, dated 6th May and 18th June last, relative to a sum of 25,000 Rupees said to have been placed in trust with this Government by Ensign Charles Hare in the year 1772, and in reply to forward a copy of a Memorandum from the Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, from which it will be seen that the records of his office have been examined and that no trace of the sum in question can be discovered. Should a receipt for the money be forthcoming, I request you will be good enough to forward a copy, with a view to aid in the discovery of the entry in the Accounts.
