Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 24th August 1863.

No. 64. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 15th July 1863, No. 1,019.

Presidency Department.

With reference to the Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated 30th May 1863, No. 32, communicated with the Proceedings of Government in the Financial Department, No. 440 of 6th instant, I have the honor to state that the increase of fifty Rupees per mensem, to which the Certificate granted by my predecessor on 17th March 1863, declared Mr. Donald, the Chief Assistant of this Office, to be entitled, from 1st May last, was not in consequence of his promotion or appointment to a new office.

2nd. By the Financial Resolution of the Government of India, dated 29th August 1862, No. 63, the minimum salary of the Chief Assistants in the various Civil Paymasters' Offices is fixed at Rupees 400 per mensem, with an increase of 50 Rupees per month after each year's service in the Class (V) to which they belong, until their salaries reach the maximum rate of Rupees 500 per mensem. Mr. Donald, who was previously in receipt of the minimum salary, having on the 1st May last completed one year's service in Class V, was considered entitled to the first increase and to have his Absentee allowances from that date calculated on the higher rate of Rupees 450 per mensem.

3rd. Section XII of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules of 1856, to which the Secretary of State refers, has always been made applicable to Uncovenanted Servants promoted from one appointment to another; but as in Mr. Donald's case there was no change of appointment, (the increase of pay being purely personal) that Section was not considered applicable to him.

No. 65. ORDER THEREON, 24th August 1863, No. 540.

Ordered that the explanation furnished in the foregoing letter be submitted to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, with reference to his Despatch of the 30th May last, No. 32.
