Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
29th August 1863.

No. 74. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated 29th July 1863, No. 3,458.

Read a Memorandum from the Officiating Civil Paymaster, Fort William, No. 2,323, dated the 29th May 1863, inquiring whether Mr. W. Sarson, an Uncovenanted Deputy Collector in Bengal, who was promoted to the third grade of Deputy Collectors during absence on privilege leave, is entitled to higher pay from the date of his promotion or from that of his return to duty.

RESOLUTION.—The Honorable the President in Council observes that privilege leave stands on a different footing from all other leaves of absence, being only a month in the year allowed for necessary rest and recreation, and given as much in the interest of the State as of the individual.

2. Accordingly, advancement to a higher class during privilege leave, does not bar payment of the higher salary from date of advancement, if the promotion does not involve any increase or change of duties or responsibility. Mr. Sarson's claim should be allowed under this general rule.

Ordered, that copies of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Foreign and Home Departments; Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and the Straits Settlements; Civil Paymasters, Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab.
