No. 55. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, Madras; to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 14th October 1863, No. 225.

I have the honor with reference to Government Order, No. 665, dated the 9th instant, to state that the charge for re-printing 20 copies of the Budget Estimates for 1863-64, was actually incurred prior to the 30th April 1863.

2. Referring to paragraph 5, I beg to observe that as far as the Civil Department is concerned, there was no actual payment, the charge having been paid in the Military Department prior to the close of 1862-63 and merely adjusted in the Civil Department. But when the question of the mode in which the charges were met comes to be considered my predecessor, Mr. Mangles, would seem to have made a mistake in advising the savings on account of absence of Chaplains being employed to meet the charge on account of guards to the Madras Bank, for Resolution of the Government of India, No. 519, dated 30th September 1862, forbids savings from Gazetted appointments being used in this manner, vide paragraph 3. The charges should, in my opinion, be met respectively from savings in 1862-63 as per margin, amounting to Rupees 3,200 (1) and 9,424 (2)

(1) Temporary establishment of this Department from "F IX Miscellaneous" item "Rewards to Junior Civil Servants."
(2) Charges on account of Bank guards from "F II, Board of Examiners" item "Moonshees and Pundits."

No. 56. ORDER THEREON, 20th October 1863, No. 678.

Resolved that the foregoing letter be communicated to the Civil Paymaster in reference to the orders* of Government noted in the margin and that he be authorized, in modification of those orders, to pass the charges therein specified against the savings in 1862-63 under "F IX, Miscellaneous," item, "Rewards to Junior Civil Servants" and under "F II, Board of Examiners," item "Moonshees and Pundits."
