Simultaneously with the opening of this Court, that at Masulipatam was closed, and, as the establishment of the latter Court cost Rupees 705 a month, there has really been a saving under Law and Justice, of Rupees 100 per mensem.

Cooly... 5 0 0	41 0 0		41 0 0	The Provincial Lunatic Asylums established at Trichinopoly and Vizagapatam were most urgently required, and it is in contemplation to form similar institutions at two other stations, Bellary and Cannanore (or Tellicherry), so as to provide for all parts of the Presidency. The want of suitable places for the safe custody of Lunatics, in which they might at the same time receive medical treatment, has long been felt. The requirements of Act IV of 1849, which relates to Criminal Lunatics, and Act XXXVI of 1858, which empowers Magistrates to order the detention of dangerous lunatics and lunatics found wandering at large, have hitherto been met by appointing the Zillah Jails as places of confinements, and occasionally permitting the removal to the Asylum at Madras of violent and raving maniacs. As might be expected, the arrangement was imperfect and worked badly. The Jails at the best are ill-adapted for the confinement of lunatics and maniacs, and the Asylum at Madras, has at various times been reported to be over-crowded. The Code of Criminal Procedure, Chapter XXVII of which superseded Act IV of 1849 in the Provinces, has tended largely to increase the number of lunatics in custody, for whom accommodation must be found. The same scale of establishment has been sanctioned for the two Asylums. It consists of three male and two female Attendants with a Cook and a Sweeper in each case, and is no more than is absolutely necessary.

The Acting Collector has reported that as the Company will shortly commence taking up the land, a considerable amount of extra work will devolve on the Deputy Collector, and the assistance applied for will therefore be indispensably necessary. The charge will be met from the amount allowed in the current year's Budget on account of salaries, &c., of the Department.
