No. 30. Read the following letter from T. CONWAY, Esq., Madras Civil Service, (Retired); to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Malveru Wells, 8th January 1863.

Having casually heard that the Secretary of State for India, in reply to the recent Memorial on the subject, has authorized the grant of the Retiring Annuities to Civil Servants who have completed a service of 25 years, without reference to the number of applicants; adding also £100 per annum to that portion contributed by the Government, I have the honor to request, if my information is correct, that you will submit my application to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, to be admitted to the benefits thus conferred.

Since the year 1857, I have been an unsuccessful applicant for one of the four ordinary Annuities yearly given out at the Madras Presidency.

I retired from the service in 1859, and in 1861 obtained the Pension of £500 per annum, then conceded by the Secretary of State to the service, but although it is now 31 years since I first entered the Civil Service, I am still without the anticipated Annuity derivable from the payments made by me whilst in that service; and owing to my low standing in the list, to the fact of five of my senior contemporaries having failed to obtain any of the Annuities of this year, and to the number of others of more lengthened service, who have not yet retired, my chance of succeeding to one of the ordinary Annuities is very remote.

I trust therefore that my case comes within the scope of the order which I understand has been issued, or if excluded by any provision in the terms of that order, that I may hope for the support of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council for a favorable consideration of my case.

P. S.—My address is, care of Messrs. Richardson & Co., No. 13, Pall Mall, London.

No. 31. To T. B. A. CONWAY, Esq., Madras Civil Service, (Retired) No. 13, Pall Mall, London, dated Fort Saint George, 13th February 1863, No. 96.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 8th ultimo, applying to be admitted to the higher rate of Annuity recently sanctioned by the Secretary of State for India, and in reply to refer you to the Proceedings of this Government of the 10th January last, No. 19, a copy of which has been forwarded to you, another copy is now enclosed.

Chief Secretary.
