2. It is not necessary that any provision should be made for charges on account of the Punjab Exhibition, as it is to be held within the current year (January next) ; and the sum of Rupees 2,000 entered by the Accountant General will therefore be struck out.

3. The prizes hitherto given by the Government of India for the best Cotton produced in this Presidency, have been discontinued, but a moderate provision of Rupees 10,000 is necessary for the payment of the allowance to the Agri-Horticultural Society authorized in the Order of Government, dated 29th October 1861, No. 2,070, and for other important experiments proposed during 1864-65.

4. The other items do not require any special notice.

5. The aggregate sum now passed is Rs. 61,500 or Rupees 7,750 less than the Budget Estimate submitted.
