Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th December 1863.

No. 429. Read the following letter from Major F. J. B. PRIESTLEY, Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Chepauk, 27th November 1863, No. 918/52:—

SIR,

With reference to my letter of the 21st instant, I have the honor to submit Budget Estimate for 1864-65 prepared in accordance with the Order of Government of India, dated 18th September 1863, No. 4,551, and to request you will be pleased to substitute this for the one which accompanied it.

No. 430. ORDER THEREON, 24th December 1863, No. 2,380.

1. With this letter the Superintendent of Revenue Survey submits his Budget Estimate for 1864-65. The Government passed* the total sum of Rupees 5,36,639 for the Budget of 1863-64 provisionally in consequence of the contemplated reform of the Settlement and Survey Departments, and requested the Accountant General to adopt the details given in the Budget for 1862-63 subject to revision. The reform in question has not been as yet settled.

* Order dated 17th January 1863, No. 109.

2. The amount sanctioned by the Government of India for 1863-64 is Rupees 5,03,629. The Budget now submitted for the ensuing year amounts to Rupees 5,22,873, and the excess of Rupees 19,244 occurs chiefly in consequence of the inclusion of the "extra pay for Uncovenanted Officers," and provision having been made for five full parties. The higher salaries proposed cannot be entered in the Budget till they are sanctioned and the entry of Rupees 6,000 for Printing paper cannot be allowed, as that article will be supplied by the Superintendent of Stationery. These items being omitted, the Estimate amounts to Rupees 5,03,673, which sum is passed.
