Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 16th February 1864.

No. 51. Read the following Extract from a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, addressed to the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 217 of 1863, dated the 30th November, No. 420.

Paragraph 1. With reference to my Financial Despatches, No. 193 of the 25th November 1862, and No. 142 of the 15th August last, providing for the grant of Invalid Pensions to Civil Servants, I have to acquaint you that Her Majesty's Government have been pleased to extend the benefit of the arrangements sanctioned in those Despatches to all Covenanted Civil Servants who may have resigned the service on account of ill health, or received Invalid Annuities under the old Rules subsequent to the date on which the Memorials of the Civil Service were sent in to the several Governments.

ORDER.—Ordered that paragraph 1, of the above-mentioned Despatch, be communicated to the Home Department for information, to the Managers of the Bengal Civil Service Annuity Fund for information and guidance, and to the Governments of Madras and Bombay for information, and for communication to the Managers of the Civil Service Annuity Funds in those Presidencies; also that a copy of the paragraph be published in the Gazette of India for general information.
