Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 16th March 1864.

No. 51. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel J. CARPENDALE, R. E., Mint Master; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Mint, 4th March 1864, No. 487.

Enclosure 1.

Moonean, a Punch-maker in the Die cutting room of the Mint, having been tried in the Town Police Court in the month of January last, on a charge of assault, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labor. The offence is not one that would apparently come under paragraph 5, Order of Government, No. 421, 5th May 1854, and which would involve a public servant's dismissal; but I am doubtful whether a man who has been subjected to imprisonment with hard labor should be allowed to resume his duty under Government, and therefore beg to be favored with the Orders of Government in this particular case. The Magistrate's letter is enclosed.

From T. G. CLARKE, Esq., Magistrate of Police; to Lieut.-Colonel J. CARPENDALE, R. E., Mint Master, dated Madras, 1st March 1864, No. 66.

Munga Moonyan, Sabapathy, Moonyan, Ramalinga and Darmen.

With reference to your letter dated the 27th ultimo, No. 473, I have the honor to state that on the 30th day of January 1864, five men named in the margin were charged by one Bauloo Naidoo with having assaulted him to such an extent as to deprive him of his senses for a time. I investigated into the charge, and the complainant having proved his case, I felt it necessary to sentence each of the defendants to one month's imprisonment with hard labor, and to pay Rupees 35, being the costs incurred by the complainant.

2. Moonyan appeared to have availed himself of the assistance of Sabapathy, and three others, to commit the assault in consequence of the complainant having obtained a judgment in the Small Cause Court against him, Moonyan; and as he and Sabapathy have already suffered punishment for the offence, I don't see any grounds why they should not be re-entertained in the Mint Establishment, their dismissal from employment would be superadding to their punishment, and entail upon the unfortunate men a greater measure of punishment than was ever intended to be inflicted, more especially as their offence is not of such a nature as to render their dismissal from the public service necessary.

No. 52. ORDER THEREON, 16th March 1864, No. 180.

The Governor in Council will not object to the re-employment of the individual referred to in the foregoing letter at the expiration of three months from the date of the sentence.

I rather think that as the man got others to combine with him in assaulting a man who had sought the aid of the law against a assailant that punishment is fluted has in no way been commensurate with the offence. & should him him out, was all events suspend him for six months.

I think that the man got
