14-1-31

No. 64 A. Read the following letter from Colonel T. McGOUN, Controller of Military Finance, Fort Saint George; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George, dated 11th March 1864, C.

I have the honor to forward a letter from the Examiner Pay Department, dated 5th March 1864, No. 874, on the subject of Major Ritherdon's salary.

2. The Order of Government, Financial Department, dated 2nd June 1863, No. 366, was not communicated to the Examiner, pending the re-submission of the case to Government which I intended at an earlier period, but which was, as already explained, postponed as it was connected with the question of a second Examiner, upon which I had to report.

3. The Staff salary of Rupees 250 a month in addition to Staff Corps pay has been passed to Major Ritherdon under the Order of Government, No. 39, dated 20th January 1863, up to the 31st December 1863, from which date it was disallowed under the Order of Government, No. 60, dated 23rd January 1864.

4. I have the honor to request instructions as to the date from which the decision of the Government of India, communicated in the Order of Government, 2nd June 1863, No. 366, is to take effect.

5. The principle upon which that decision was based has, I would observe, been disallowed by the Secretary of State, as notified in G. O. G., No. 53, dated 9th February 1864, the Secretary of State, as I understand the instructions, objecting to the disbursement of any Military pay to an Officer of the Staff Corps in a Civil appointment, in excess of the consolidated salary of the appointment.

6. Mr. Greenfield's salary is Rupees 500, half of which only was available during the first twelve months of his absence; now two-thirds are available. I am uncertain whether the decision of the Government of India in Major Ritherdon's case is still considered in force, and if not, I am doubtful as to the mode in which Major Ritherdon's salary should be adjusted retrospectively and prospectively.

Rupees 250.

Rupees 333-5-4.

7. Major Rose Campbell, referred to in the 4th paragraph of the Examiner's letter, draws Staff Corps pay in addition to his Civil salary as Protector of Emigrants and I have the honor to request information whether, with reference to the decision of the Secretary of State in G. O. G., No. 53 of 1864, Staff Corps pay is to be continued in addition to the Civil salary.

8. Major Hamilton, an Assistant in the Mysore Commission, now draws Rupees 40-14-0 per mensem, the excess of his Staff Corps pay over his Civil salary, and I presume that that allowance from the Military Department must be discontinued, but that the disbursements made under the decision of the Government of India will not be retrenched.

From Captain J. W. RIDEOUT, Examiner Pay Department; to the Controller of Military Finance, dated Fort Saint George, 5th March 1864, No. 874.

I have the honor to acknowledge copy of the Order of Government, No. 366, dated June 2nd, 1863, conveying the decision of the Government of India on the salary to be drawn by Major Ritherdon in his capacity of Acting Assistant in the office of the Pay Examiner, and restricting him to Staff Corps rate of pay.

2. I would observe, however, that under the authority of Government recorded in Proceedings, No. 39, dated 20th January 1863, Staff salary at Rupees 250 a month, in addition to Staff Corps pay has been passed by this office to Major Ritherdon, the order adverted to in the first paragraph not having been communicated to me. I have therefore to request I may be informed, whether retrenchment of the Staff salary drawn subsequent to the date of the Order of Government, June 2nd, 1863, is to be made.

3. I have further to bring to your notice that, under the orders of the Secretary of State, published in G. O. G., No. 53, 9th February 1864, page 229, Fort Saint George Gazette, the principle of an officer receiving no more than the consolidated salary of the appointment he holds, irrespective of his Military rank, is to hold good in all cases of officers officiating, as well as permanent, and as Major Ritherdon's pay as Major in the Staff Corps exceeds by Rupees 140, the full salary of the appointment he is acting in, to carry out in its integrity the orders of the Secretary of State would involve a loss to Major Ritherdon of a large sum every month.

4. The above order, I would further observe, applies to two other officers serving in this Presidency, Major W. Rose Campbell of the Staff Corps and Officiating Emigration Agent, and Major Hamilton, Bengal Staff Corps, Assistant in the Mysore Commission.

5. I have to request I may be furnished with early instructions as to the adjustment of the pay of the several officers alluded to.

Transferred to the Financial Department.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
15th March 1864.

(Signed) H. MARSHALL, Colonel,
Secretary to Government.

No. 64 B.

ORDER THEREON, 30th March 1864, No. 188.

The Governor in Council observes that under the terms of the Despatch of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State under date the 8th October last, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 9th ultimo, Major Ritherdon must either vacate his acting appointment as Assistant Examiner in the Pay Department, or his salary must be reduced to the sum of Rupees 500, the consolidated salary of the appointment held by Mr. Greenfield. As it is not to be expected that Major Ritherdon would avail himself of the latter alternative, his services will be re-placed at the disposal of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief from the 15th proximo. Up to that date Major Ritherdon will be allowed, as a special case, to draw the pay of his rank as a Major in the Staff Corps.

2. Under the circumstances represented by the Controller, the Government will not insist on Major Ritherdon being retrenched the amount of the Staff salary drawn by him in addition to his Staff Corps pay from the date on which the Order of Government in the Financial Department, dated the 2nd June last, reached the Controller, to the 31st December last, up to which date the allowance in question was drawn. The Governor in Council must, however, observe that the Controller should have communicated to the Examiner the order of Government above quoted as soon as he received it.

3. The case of Major Hamilton is similar to that of Major Ritherdon in so far that he will not be entitled in future to draw the excess of his Staff Corps pay over his Civil salary. This excess, however, may be passed to him up to the 15th proximo, in order that he may have time to elect whether, under the circumstances, he will retain his appointment in the Mysore Commission, or revert to Military duty.

4. The case of Major W. R. Campbell is not, in the opinion of His Excellency in Council, affected by the orders of the Secretary of State above referred to. Major Campbell's appointment as Officiating Protector of Emigrants is one which has been hitherto held in addition to another Office; and at the present time Major Campbell is employed under His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief as President of the Military Examining Committee. His case is analogous to that of a Military Officer employed on Military duty and holding a Government Translatorship, the salary of which he draws in addition to his Military pay. His appointment as Officiating Protector of Emigrants is clearly not one of the class of Civil appointments contemplated by the Secretary of State.

Order thereon 30th March 1864. No. 188

The Governor in Council observes that under the terms of the despatch of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State under date the 8th October last, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 9th ultimo, Major Rutherdon must either vacate his acting appointment as Assistant Examiner in the Pay Department, or his salary must be reduced to the sum of Rupees 333-5-4, the

As it is not to be expected that Major Rutherdon would avail himself of the latter alternative, his services will be replaced at the disposal of His Excellency the Com-

Controller's Office to the 31st December last, up to which date the allowance in question was drawn. The Governor in Council must, however, observe that the Controller should have communicated to the Examiner the order of Government above quoted as soon as he received it.

3. The case of Major Hamilton
