No. 64. ORDER THEREON, 30th April 1864, No. 239.

The Governor in Council considers it inexpedient to apply to the Government of India for an additional grant on the above account, as requested by the Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General. The amount is small, being only Rupees 308 per annum, and may be met from savings under the heads to which the charges respectively appertain, or from any reserve that may be allowed by the Supreme Government for "Unforeseen Contingencies," on the representation lately made to them by the Madras Government.
