Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 15th August 1864.

No. 36. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Civil Paymaster, Fort Saint George; to the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 29th July 1864, No. 75.

I have the honor, with reference to your letter, No. 1216, dated 7th instant, to enclose copy of a letter from the Examiner Pay Department, Fort Saint George, affording the information required in the 1st paragraph.

2. With reference to the 2nd paragraph, I beg to state that the particular case to which I referred in my letter of the 6th June last, No. 26, was that of Surgeon W. Aitken, Superintendent of the Lying-in-Hospital, who has proceeded to England on furlough for six months. That officer was on the receipt of a consolidated salary of Rupees 700 a month, but receives no portion of Civil salary during absence, agreeably to Financial Resolution, No. 391G, dated 4th September 1862.

3. Surgeon J. L. Paul, who is acting for Dr. Aitken without prejudice to his own duties, is also in the receipt of a consolidated salary of 700 Rupees a month as Surgeon of the General Hospital, besides an allowance of 150 Rupees as Professor in the Medical College.

4. I take this opportunity of soliciting orders on the case of Dr. D. Macfarlane, Garrison Surgeon of Fort Saint George, who has been acting from the 4th instant as Surgeon of the 4th District, without prejudice to his own duties, in the room of Surgeon Major W. H. Porteous, who has accompanied His Excellency the Governor on tour.

5. On a former occasion, when Dr. Macfarlane acted under similar circumstances, he received an acting allowance of Rupees 312-15-6 per mensem, being a moiety of the net Civil salary of the appointment; but the rule under which such allowance was passed has been objected to in your letter to this Department, No. 6418, dated 23rd December 1863.

6. I further beg to be informed whether there is any objection to Medical officers, who may be appointed to Civil appointments to which consolidated salaries are not attached subsequent to the publication in this Presidency of the Despatch of the Secretary of State for India, No. 152, dated 16th May last, as well as Military Medical officers who may be appointed to act in Civil appointments, or to perform Civil duties in addition to their duties in the Military Department, being permitted to receive Civil allowances irrespective of, and in addition to, the Military pay and allowances to which they may be entitled under the Despatch in question.
