Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
16th August 1864.

No. 38. Read the following letter from E. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India; to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Simla, the 28th July 1864, No. 1478.

The Officiating Civil Paymaster, Bombay, having forwarded to this Department a copy of his correspondence with the Government of Bombay regarding the case of the Reverend F. Gell, I am directed to state, for the information of that Government, that, under existing rules, a Chaplain cannot take a furlough for three years until he has completed a residence of 10 years from the date of his arrival in India.

Ordered that a copy of the above letter be forwarded to—

The Home Department, with reference to the Memorandum from that Department, No. 335, of the 25th May 1864;

The Officiating Civil Paymaster, Bombay, in reply to his letter, No. 2709 of the 16th March 1864;

The Governments of Bengal, Madras, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and the Straits Settlements;

The Civil Paymasters in Bengal, Madras, the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab.

(Signed) J. E. COOKE,
Asst. Secretary to the Govt. of India.

No. 39. ORDER THEREON, 16th August 1864, No. 419.
