No. 8. ORDER THEREON, 3rd March 1865, No. 133.

The Governor in Council is of opinion that the question raised in the foregoing papers must be answered in the negative. From the wording of Section 12, Clause 2 of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, it appears to have been clearly the intention of the Home Government that the period of leave on furlough, with retention of office, to be given at any one time, was to be restricted to 12 months.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from the Chief Assistant Civil Paymaster in charge.

Rec'd 10th Feby 1865, No. 257.

Order thereon 3d March 1865. No. 133.

The Governor in Council is of opinion that the question raised in the foregoing papers must be answered in the negative. From the wording of Section XII Clause 2 of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, it appears to have been clearly the intention of the Home Government that the period of leave on furlough with retention of office to be given at any one time was to be restricted to 12 months.
