My dear Arbuthnot,

I am sorry I cannot give you any information regarding Mr. Stevens as I do not know the man - nor indeed do I know any one else out N Government employ competent to audit the Bank accounts which are now very heavy. Formerly the audit was generally given to one of the Superintendents in this Office, and I think treat Mr Mackay would be as good a man as any provided there be no objection on the score of his being an Officer of Government - I really cannot at this moment think of any other good man.

Yours truly
