Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 6th January 1865.

No. 22. Read the following letter from Major R. M. MACDONALD, Registrar General of Assurances, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 22nd December 1864, No. 26.

I have the honor, with reference to the annexed copy of a letter, No. 3638, of the 21st December 1864, received this day from the Accountant General, to submit the estimate therein required both for the official year 1865-66, and for the unexpired portion of the year 1864-65.

From F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, to Major R. M. MACDONALD, Registrar General of Assurances; dated Fort Saint George, 21st December 1864, No. 3638.

Budget and Finance Department.

I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to submit to Government, if possible before the Christmas vacation, an estimate of the receipts and expenditure of your Department for the year 1865-66, for sanction and transmission to me, to be included in the General Budget Estimate for that year, now under preparation in this office.

(True Copy).

(Signed) R. M. MACDONALD,
Registrar General.

No. 23. ORDER THEREON, 6th January 1865, No. 14.

The Government of India having directed that the cost of the Office establishment of the Registrar General of Assurances should not exceed 300 Rupees a month, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves, accordingly, to reduce it to that amount, or Rupees 3600 per annum. The necessary alteration will be made, by the Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, in the estimate submitted by Major Macdonald.

2. It is observed that a sum of Rupees 27,600 is entered as the probable cost of the building required for the Registrar General's Office. This should properly be provided for in the Public Works Budget, and the item will, therefore, be struck out of the present estimate.
